Our 'Get Blackie on a mission night at CBC on the 28th March 2015. Thanks to all who came to hear!

Some March Madness....

Let's Get Blackieonamission!

That was the call from my Pastor - and we've got three weeks to organise it! Ok - we can do this - we love deadlines and working on adrenalin. Paul phoned me on a Tuesday and asked for a team to be put together and ready for our first meeting on the Wednesday!

Six of us sat around Paul's dining room table, schemed and planned what a 'profile' night might look like.

During the morning service the 'Getblackieonamission' night was advertised as $1 a day to get Blackie on her way. Meanwhile in the night service it was $1 a day to keep Blackie away!!

On the 28th of March we had a great night where I was able to share some of the stories from our previous trips to Rwanda as well as speak about the vision and dreams that lay before me. Gary met everyone at the door with his thermometer and giving them Ebola checks before they could pass through customs and enter into Rwanda for the evening!

Who else heard?

Of course the one night that suited most people for a profile night was also the only weekend I was away at a Girls' Brigade National Council meeting. It was a massive weekend where I drove 497kms with six trips backwards and forwards across Sydney. I was however blessed to be able to also share my Rwanda story and intensions on long term mission to the State Commissioners at the GB National Council. While I felt incredibly unprepared - it was truly a great opportunity to share with my GB family.

Where are we up to?

With the addition to the blackieonamission.com website of $1 a day to get Blackie on her way, we have seen the

A DOLLAR A DAY TO SEND BLACKIE ON HER WAY!

website go from 55% to 72% in six days! This is not only encouraging but also very overwhelming at how much interest has been on the website in a week! It is very humbling to see people whom you know and some that you don't actually believe in you and what you are doing.

Thanks again everyone for your continued support and interest in Blackieonamission! I trust you too will be blessed - Happy Easter - Michele.
