Caringbah.
9:30am

I would love for you to join with me as my Church, Caringbah Baptist send me out to serve God in Rwanda. The commissioning will take place on Sunday 2nd August during the morning service from 9:30am. As many of you know I will be going to Rwanda with International Teams who will also be attending this service and officially sending me out.

Sharing in this day with as many of my family and friends as possible would be lovely and very special to me, so please mark it in your diary and join us if you are free.
